

TAPING INSTRUCTIONS

Please follow these simple guidelines:

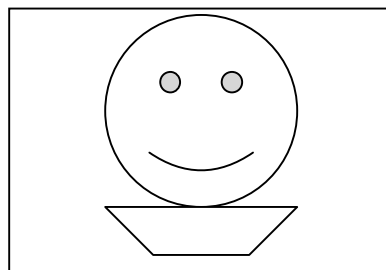

1. Write or type your name, height and contact information in large letters with a black magic marker on a sheet of paper you hold in front of you. Also please say your name aloud so that we have both the spelling and pronunciation.

2. Please do a quick test—stop and watch the tape to make sure there is proper lighting and sound
3. Next, please record a full body shot so that we can see what you look like from head to toe (usually the widest setting on the camera and further away from the subject).

4. When you read the audition pages, the camera should be centered on your face showing some of your neck and shoulders.

*Please send auditions back on Mini DV or DVD tape. No VHSC or Hi-8!

Thank you!!

Please mail your DVD/ Mini DV to:

THE NEXT THREE DAYS
Randi Hiller Casting
721 1/2 N. La Cienega Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90069
USA

Instructions for e-mailing tapes – Always great and the fastest delivery!

Using a DV camera, connect to your computer and import the video into your computer's editing program. Each editing program is different. Consult the "help" section of your program if you are unfamiliar with how to use it. If you have an Apple computer, use iMovie.

Select the best take of each scene and assemble them into a single video. Then, save it as the actor's name and export/"share" it.

Your editing program will likely give you several options when exporting your video. We prefer videos in .mov (Quicktime), m4v, or MPEG format. If your editing program gives you a "size" option, medium is often the best choice.

Once your video is compressed and saved to your computer, go to yousendit.com.

The site will walk you through uploading your video. It will produce a link that allows anyone to access your video for a week. It is a good idea to e-mail the link to yourself first to make sure the video downloads and plays correctly.

Then, forward the link promptly to us at ginag@hillercasting.com